

Look at the images of the different types of weddings and relationships. Talk about some of the things you think the different relationships have in common.

Christian wedding - a union between two people, overseen by God, for the lifelong relationship between them. Usually held in a church.

Hindu wedding - Hindu marriage joins two individuals for life. It is a union of two individuals and is recognised by law.

Humanist wedding - a ceremony that isn't religious and gives people the opportunity to marry where they want, when they want and how they want.

A couple who chose to get married with a superhero theme. With the groom as Superman and with his ushers as other superheroes.

A couple who chose not to get married and have been together for 55 years!
